WPCC 2011

This Year's Convention

Jesus Christ changes everything.

In Christ we not only have an intimate, assured relationship with God but we are also wonderfully adopted into His own family. We become part of the people of God and enter a rich network of relationships with other brothers and sisters in Christ. This year at WPCC we will be considering some of the joys and responsibilities of being a member of God's people. To help us in this task we're delighted to have John Woodhouse and John Paterson as our Bible teachers.

John Woodhouse is the principal of Moore Theological College where he lectures in doctrine and Old Testament. John is married to Moya and has spoken at several Western Plains Christian Conventions in the past. This year John returns to teach us from the New Testament letter of Philemon.

John Paterson is one of the teaching elders at Trinity Church, Tamworth and is married to Sue. Part of his ministry includes oversight of two local Christian Schools, involvement in church-planting work in PNG and ongoing annual ministry to churches and pastors in the Central Phillipines. John will be helping us focus on the issue of "Being Church".

WPCC again promises to be a wonderful time of teaching and encouragement. A time to be enthused about who we are in Christ.

Children's Program

The children's program speakers this year will be from Trinity Church Tamworth. The children's program will operate during DAYTIME SESSIONS ONLY.
